The most important lesson in golf!

Presented by Ed LeBeau of Heartland Golf School

Join us on Friday, March 28, 2008 6:00 – 8:30 p.m. when Ed LeBeau of Heartland Golf School will hold a clinic on “The most important lesson in golf.” This workshop moves beyond “what is often misunderstood” to a laser focus on “what is critical to understand.” It will achieve two objectives: (1) to enable players to begin the season with a clearer understanding as to how to make the biggest improvement in 2008 and (2) to make their thoughts about their swing much simpler.

The cost of this clinic is a $27.50 for members (Non-members $32.50) and includes a light dinner. Clinic is limited to 30 individuals and reservations are required. Ed’s clinic will fill up fast, so sign up today to guarantee your reservation.

Hosted by Rosemann & Associates
1221 Washington – St. Louis, MO 63103

Directions: From Interstate 40, exit onto 14th Street. Go north to Washington, turn east (right) and go 2 blocks. Building is on the north (left) side of the street. Metered street parking. From Interstate 44, exit on Lafayette, go east to 14th Street and then follow above instructions.

SAVE THE DATE! An on-the-course clinic at Annbriar with Ed LeBeau is scheduled for Sunday, August 17, 2008 (rain date Aug. 24). The on-the-course clinic will be followed by nine holes of golf, all at beautiful Annbriar Golf Course in Waterloo, IL.
